Dear Mr Ginsberg:

I have learned about your need for a sales representative, from your company's web site. I am more than interested in this position with Brain Clothing, and believe that my education and employment background are appropriate for the position.

While working toward my master's degree, I was employed as a sales representative with a small on-line advertising company. I have increased my sales volume and profit margin appreciably while at Media Inc., and I would like to repeat that success in the clothing industry. I have a strong academic background in marketing, and a deep interest in clothes ; I think that I could apply my combination of knowledge and experience to the clothing industry. I will complete my master's degree in marketing in June.

Enclosed is a copy of my resume, which provides more details about my qualifications for the position.

I look forward to meeting you. I will contact you to confirm that you received my application and to answer any questions you may have.

Thank you for your consideration.
Sincerely,

Lucie Brochant
